Introduction

On behalf of the Oklahoma Association of REALTORS, WRS is pleased to present this two-page analysis of the performance of the Southern Oklahoma real estate market. Data for this analysis was provided by the Oklahoma Association of REALTORS.

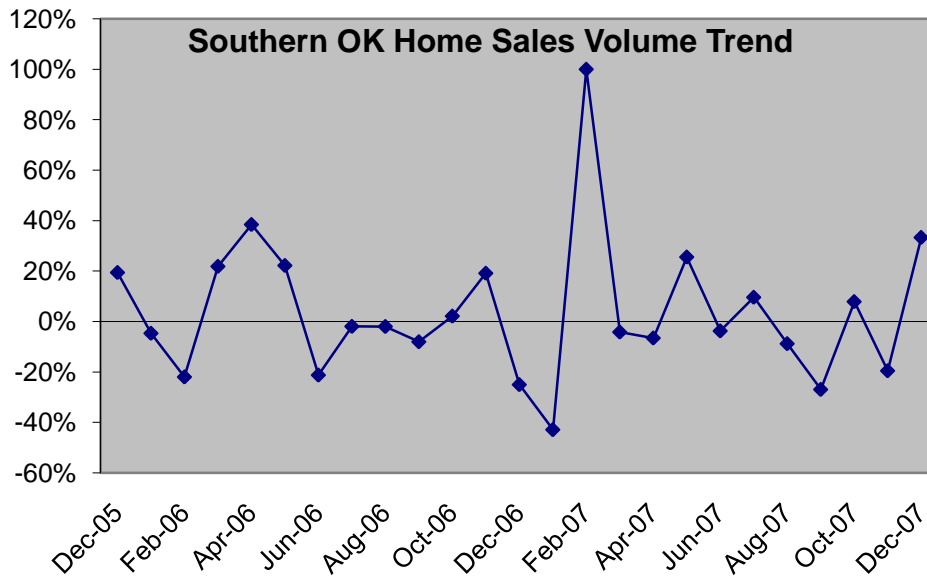

Chart 1: Average Home Sale Price Trend.

In this graph the horizontal line represents the national market trend regarding price and volume. It is a constant figure indicated on the graph at zero. The moving line represents the comparable trend in your market. It can be read by looking at a specific point and determining that your trend in housing values and volume is a percentage above or below the national trend. The graphs do not reflect actual value or volume numbers, but rather a performance trend with regard to these numbers in your marketplace.

Chart 2: Housing Market Volume Trend

Key Facts:

- Southern Oklahoma had several great months for value including 33% price growth in May and 11% in July.
- The market also saw great volume growth in several months including 50% growth in February compared to the same month in 2006 and 18% in March.
